Springboro Pee Wee Cheer, Inc. Code of Ethics

If you are selected as a coach for one of the SPC teams, your signature below means that you agree to the following:

1. I will abide by, enforce and support the rules and regulations of SPC's bylaws.
2. I will set an example to foster and encourage a positive team atmosphere in order to develop desirable attitudes and habits in my team and discourage undesirable characteristics.
3. I will promote good sportsmanship, not only on my team, but my opponent's team as well.
4. I will never place self-glorification and personal gain above the welfare of my team members.
5. I will place more concern on molding the character, personality and growth of each team member than on my team's win/loss record.
6. I will not agitate judges, referees or other coaches.
7. I will refer any problems I have to the directors and/or Board rather than make a scene in front of team members, parents and spectators.
8. I will accept responsibility of controlling my team parents during activities.
9. I will remember at all times that my team is made up of children not adults, and will not treat them as such.
